OBITUARY

When John Peter was a little boy,
he was clever and he was coy.
His mother loved him with all her heart,
he was fun, he was smart!

Peter now a grown up man,
he must take his life in hand.
Together with knowledge and a good mind
I trust his respect for all mankind.

John Peter Schibler

1965-2024

In loving memory I must sadly announce the passing of my son, John Peter Schibler on september 14, 2024.

Together with his wife, two sons, three sisters and their partners, nieces and nephews we will remember him with fondest memories of fun and joking, laughter and love, someone who we relied on, respected and who we will hold close in our hearts.
