

All staff, past and present, are very sad to have lost a much esteemed friend and colleague

Udaya KUNANAYAKAM

Udaya was a good man, loved and appreciated by all, not only in Lets Travel, but the travel industry on the whole. His humour, friendliness and kindness will be missed by all.

We are extending our deepest symphaties to Udaya's family and hope that you find comfort in knowing that your beloved one has touched the lives and hearts of so many.

Lets Travel